Introductions

In this year 2021, India will complete 76 years of independence, which is a matter of pride for everyone, but at present, the young generation in India, whose age is between 20 to 30 years, is doing the freedom struggle so much better. They do not know the way and the importance of freedom, they do not know much about freedom from books and lessons taught in school, but they do not know closely the story of its struggle to free India. What challenges had to be faced and what sacrifices had to be made by India.

Today India is called a country with a big economy because there is a large number of youth in India who are continuously progressing with their ability and helping in the development of the country, but India has seen a period of bad economy when After independence, India had to see partition and after that time India's economy was completely broken, but still, after continuous efforts and on the basis of patriotism, India once again appeared to strengthen its economy and make its mark in the world. Made a place.

India and successes

Today India is counted among the countries that have nuclear weapons and not only this, India is a country that has a nuclear submarine INS Arihant in which India can keep all its nuclear weapons safe. Not only this, but India's name is also included in the list of 5 countries sending unmanned missions to the moon and Mars, which is a matter of pride for every Indian. Talking about production, in this matter too, India has left behind many countries and has made its place.

The Government of India also continuously provides services to the people through its schemes and works with the slogan of Sabka Saath, Sabka Vikas and this also leads to the development of India. It is necessary to pay attention to all these things because when you will pay attention to all these things then you will feel proud that you are Indian and you are born in a country like India, so it is very important to celebrate Amrit Mahotsav of Independence.

By organizing programs in different ways on the Amrit Mahotsav of independence, the love of patriotism is made aware in the mind of the people and the martyrs who fought for the freedom struggle, and all the people who had dreamed of freedom, are fulfilled. Did. Apart from this, through the Amrit Mahotsav of Independence, we can tell today's young generation in detail about the struggle for freedom and make them aware of all the challenges that came in the way of giving freedom to India, because we have to know about our future. Keeping this in mind, it is important to remember our history as well because it is the history of India that will fill anyone with confidence.
